Burglary Is Investigated

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP)—Authorities were investigating Wednesday the $2,000 burglary of a car from Fort Smith, where thieves jerked a 400-pound safe from its cabinet and hauled it away in a company truck.
The truck and empty safe were found near Mott, Okla., several hours after the burglary was discovered Wednesday.

NAVY TELLS

least two Navy admirals had called Bucher and his men heroes.
With a Brooklyn twang, New some quoted regulations: "The commanding officer shall not permit his command to be searched by any person representing a foreign state nor permit any other personnel under his command to be removed from that command by such a person, so long as he has the power to resist."

Bucher's civilian attorney, E. Miles Harvey, immediately demanded, "Commander, at the time the North Koreans first set foot on your ship did you any longer have the power to resist?"
"No, I did not," Bucher answered.

"Commander Bucher remains fervent in his desire to tell this court the full details," Harvey said.

The Navy, through Wednesday, had raised these points against Bucher:
1. That he failed to comprehend fully the possibility of an attack. For example:
Q. Vice Admiral Harold G. Bowen Jr.: "Did you ever consider an attack and what you would do?"

A. Bucher: "No sir, I never considered I would ever be attacked on this mission. It never occurred to me. It never occurred to me nor did it cross my mind that I would ever be put in the position I found myself in that afternoon."

2. That his men weren't issued small arms.
Q. Bowen: "How about small arms for the men?"

A. Bucher: "Small arms were issued in drills in port and under way, but not on the day of capture."

3. That Bucher waited too long to order destruction of classified equipment and documents.
Bucher testified that he waited until after one boarding attempt by the North Koreans, a sea chase and their first salvo of cannon fire before giving the order.

Until then, Bucher said, he had only ordered preparations for destruction.
He said at least two mattress covers full of documents fell to the Communists.

That Bucher failed to realize his incinerator was too small to burn all the documents and he didn't sail into water deep enough for jettisoning them.
"It was a complete oversight on my part," Bucher said.

5. And finally, that he surrendered 81 of the most classified items on his ship when he turned over his men.
Q. Newsome: "Isn't it true that in deciding to surrender your vessel you also decided to surrender some of the most classified items on your ship, your personnel?"

A. Bucher: "Yes sir, that's right."
Bucher, in the first four days, raised these points against his superiors:

1. That they sent him on a dangerous intelligence mission without giving him the explosives he asked for to destroy secret equipment in case he had to.

2. That they failed to meet his request for adequate mounted cannon and gave him two machine guns instead, along with the mount for a third gun he never received.

3. That he messaged repeated pleas for help when he was attacked—even directed messages

California Flood Caused Many Deaths

OJAI, Calif. (AP)—Along the debris-choked banks of Sespe Creek, the clearing sky disclosed a young boy's body... then the bodies of two more... then the lifeless forms of a sheriff's deputy and a forest ranger. It was feared five more would be found dead today.

These were the lost parts of six young hikers, their adult leader and three men who tried tragically to rescue them from the rain-flooded area.

A survivor of the group, Scott Eckersley, 28, told authorities that he was washed ashore after a bulldozer stalled as they had attempted to cross the swift water late Monday.

Elsewhere, as skies dried over California, heavy property and crop damage was counted. Southern California's storm damage was estimated at $3 million.

At least 29 traffic deaths in southern California were caused by the storm, authorities said.

In the foothills of Angeles National Forest, northeast of Los Angeles, 15 homes were destroyed by floods and rockslides in the Azusa-Glendora area.

More than 90 other homes were damaged as overnight floodwaters from mountains denuded by a 19,000-acre brush fire last year sent muck and boulders crashing through a housing tract. Several were filled with mud six feet deep. Fifteen homes were evacuated.

A mud flow wrecked the Azusa-Pacific College gymnasium, causing $100,000 damage, and hundreds of cars were partly buried at times.

The damage in Glendora-Azusa was expected to exceed $1 million. In San Luis Obispo County, officials said flood waters caused $2 million damage.

A 70-year-old Guadalupe cypress tree which stood on grounds of Pomona's Post Office to the White House—without getting any aid.

4. That at no time did he receive radioed advice or guidance from superiors about what action to take.

5. That he was given inadequate communications, both on the ship in the form of an Army telephone system insufficient in emergencies, and between his ship and Naval headquarters in Japan because of improper radio frequency synchronization.

"I had no confidence in it," he testified.

6. That he was given a steering system that failed more than 60 times in two weeks before it was finally repaired in Hawaii.

Bucher's testimony on Wednesday gave new details about the shelling of the Pueblo and indignities to her men when they were finally taken on shore in North Korea.

He said the crewman killed, Fireman Duane Hodges, of Creswell, Ore., was hit by a cannon shell that exploded in his upper thigh and abdomen.

"He could not possibly have survived even if there had been a team of expert surgeons aboard," Bucher said.

He added that Hodges died after emergency first aid as the Pueblo was being escorted to port.

Bucher and two other of his men were wounded.

Bucher said he was struck several times by his captors when he refused to disconnect the Pueblo's radio or uncover her guns.

Freight Rate Hikes Range to 10 Per Cent

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Interstate Commerce Commission continued and broadened today railroad freight rate increases ranging from 3 to 10 per cent.

The commission said the increases will bring an estimated $400 million a year to railroads engaged in interstate operations.

The ICC authorized last Nov. 26 an interim freight rate hike for all commodities except grain, iron, steel scrap and pig iron. The interim increases were made permanent today.

2 More Jurors Seated in Shaw Trial

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Two more jurors were seated Wednesday for the trial of Clay Shaw, charged with conspiring to murder President John F. Kennedy. Both survived rigorous questioning.

The jurors have been asked whether they thought the Warren Commission was right in saying that Lee Harvey Oswald shot Kennedy, working alone and for reasons unknown.

The only acceptable answer to both state and defense was "I have no opinion."

Four jurors were seated in the first two days of what the prosecution predicts might be a two-month hearing.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP) — If we have many more TV specials about the remote, sparsely inhabited Galapagos islands, they may become successors to Aca-pulco or Las Vegas as "in" places for tourists. And what will happen then to the blue-footed boobies and the Darwin finches and the giant tortoises that the conservationists want to keep alive?

A little over a week ago, Jacques Yves Cousteau and his fun-loving divers gave the ABC viewers a once-over-lightly tour of the volcanic Galapagos and its unusual fauna.

On Wednesday night CBS viewers had a closer, more comprehensive look at the island that more than a century ago stimulated Charles Darwin to study and think more deeply about the origin of the species.

This hour special apparently was made originally for the British TV audience and it had the duke of Edinburgh doing some of the commentary and frequently mentioning the need to keep the islands off limits to man.

The camera team of Alan and Joan Root—who made "Born Free"—shot the footage showing the reptiles and birds found on the barren islands far off the coast of Ecuador. Since most of the creatures are amazingly tame, they had some marvelous sequences.

Viewers, thus, were able to see in close up the amusing courtship rituals of lumbering tortoises, sleek frigate birds and the clown-like blue-footed boobies.

Confused But Well, Happy

BARSTOW, Calif. (AP) — "Things are a little confused right now, but we're all fine, well and happy," says Betty Gallegos.

Mrs. Gallegos, 44, widowed last September, gave birth to triplets Saturday, and left St. Mary Desert Valley Hospital Wednesday with her three new sons, Kim, Kirk and Kit.

She now has 14 children. The first problem: finding a baby-sitter so she can resume her $275-a-month job as hostess in the officers club at the nearby Marine Corps Supply Depot. She says, with a chuckle, the baby sitter should have plenty of experience—and steady nerves.

SANDRA TREXLER

MAGNOLIA— Sandra Kay Trexler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Trexler of Emmet, has been awarded an Ethel Hart scholarship to Southern State College for 1968-69 according to Bernard Polk, director of student aids.

The Ethel Hart awards are made to outstanding students specializing in the field of business at Southern State and were made possible by a bequest from Mrs. Hart, a long-time teacher in the Department of Business before her death in 1963.

Miss Trexler is a 1966 graduate of Emmet High School and junior business major at Southern State College, where she was one of 50 outstanding junior and senior coeds invited to live this year in Cross Hall, new honor residence for women on the campus here.

We watched the woodpecker finches poke twigs and cactus spines into tree holes to dig out insects.

Prince Philip visited the island briefly four or five years ago and is interested in conservation. His remarks were directly to the point and he did supply a good sense of humor and a nice turn of phrase. Most of the narration, however, was done by American actor Leon Janney.

For a family audience, it was a delightful hour. It would, however, have been helpful if, after assuring of saving the Galapagos, someone had told us specifically how individuals could help. A second mild complaint concerns the commercials—so carefully integrated into the show that the viewer was not aware the sales pitch was in progress until somebody started exhibiting cereal boxes.

Harbinger of spring from NBC: Plans for the summer replacement of the Rowan & Martin Show will be the singing, dancing Gold Diggers again, with comedians Paul Lynde and Stanley Myron Handelman and singer Lou Rawls as the other regulars.

Walter Cronkite of CBS has been chosen to receive the prestigious William Allen White award for journalistic merit—the first broadcaster to be so honored.

"Yes, sir," replied the unruffled claims agent, and asked how he had managed the unusual feat of colliding with a bathtub.

It turned out the bathtub had fallen from a truck on the highway.

Then there was the case of the man who one moment was relaxing chin deep in a warm bath and the next moment found himself, stark naked, sitting on his garage roof.

His hot water heater had exploded. Part of his house was demolished; he was unscathed.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bittel

HE QUESTIONS TRUTH IN YOUTH

Dear Helen: As a not very hip granddad, I am perplexed with this term "bare-bottom" spanking your readers have been bandying about.

Now when I was young, fathers were proud of their ability with a razor strap and woe to the boy who didn't get his pants down before Pop got his sleeves rolled up. But even in that golden age of corporal punishment, girls were largely spared because of their ladylike modesty. They were known to run away from home rather than face such an ordeal.

According to some of your recent columns, teen-age girls are no longer immune. Has the old time respect for feminine modesty disappeared or is it possible that these youngsters are pulling your leg? — DOUBTING THOMAS

Dear Tom: In this age of so-called permissiveness, you'd be surprised at how many teenagers are still getting spanked at the drop of a hat. If you think they're putting me on, read sample letters from parents.

Dear Helen: Animals grow their own clothes and cannot take them off. Humans have clothes that are adjustable to meet conditions. There are things that can be better done in the nude.

Corporal punishment is one of them. A rebellious kid needs a hell-fire father, and she shouldn't complain. — REV. E.R.B.

My dear Helen: I am the mother of five girls, the oldest 18, and they all get hard floggings whenever they need them which is often. My sister's children are very rambunctious, but mine are very obedient, until the spankings wear off. We feel the younger children must hear and see the punishment so that they'll learn a lesson. — MRS. R.R.

Dear Mrs. R: And I feel that you'll neither hear nor see much of your children from the minute they're old enough to strike out on their own! — H.

Hope Girls Beaten in Tournament

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

Unable to compensate for a cold third quarter, the Hope Lady Cats caught a 54-48 decision from the Delight Bulldogs last night in the Gurdon Invitational Tournament, thus knocking Hope from a chance at a third consecutive title.

With the loss, the Ladies' five game winning streak ended and the overall record cut to 9-8. Delight, talented with only two seniors on the squad, went to 12-6 and a semifinal meeting with the Prescott Wolverettes tonight at 6:30 p.m.

Through a fast-paced opening period, the Lady Cats stayed around the lead or in possession of it. However, the Bulldogs were getting plenty of underneath baskets, through the intricate maneuvers of the forwards.

On top 13-11 at 1:37, Hope gave up six straight points to soph Gwen Mitchell of Delight, before a final cut the deficit to 17-15 at the quarter.

After showing well in the fast action, Hope went slightly off the edge in a crawling second segment, and after three minutes the Bulldogs had slipped into a 23-17 lead. Neither team could hit for the crucial points, however, but at intermission the locals trailed 23-22.

Quickly that dropped to four points, before Delight broke the ice with a 7-0 spurge inside of three minutes. That sent the 'Dogs into a 36-25 command, which undented rose to 44-32 with the final seven minutes to go.

Down 14 points with 6:02 to play, Hope put up a fight as Dee Singleton scored 10 consecutive points to help reduce the margin. 12-7 remained when it lowered to only six points at 48-42, but the Lady Cats could come no closer. Starting a senior and two sophs ahead, Delight has a future ahead after last year's unbeaten junior girls team. Tonight the Bulldogs try to revenge an earlier loss to Prescott, but the Wolverettes under Coach Melba Hall have moved into fine position to win a state tourney berth at the district meet next month.

Philadelphia Invades Jones Field House tomorrow night, as the Badgers clash in a 4-AA Western Division affair. The junior boys teams play the preliminary game at 6:30 p.m. Then on Saturday evening the HHS squads journey to Fairview to shoot at the unbeaten Cardinals.

Knicks Get Along Without Cazzie Russell

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The New York Knickerbockers got along without Cazzie Russell longer than expected, but they never could find a way to do without Philadelphia's blazing Billy Cunningham.

Cunningham drilled in 44 points—his career high in the National Basketball Association—as the 76ers overcame a 17-point second half deficit and edged the Knicks 140-137 in double overtime Wednesday night.

New York, playing without sprig ace Russell, who broke an ankle Tuesday night against Seattle, led from the opening minute until Hal Greer's jump shot with two seconds remaining in regulation play pulled the 76ers even at 119-118.

Willis Reed, who led Knickerbockers with 37 points, sent the game into the second overtime with a free throw that knotted it 120-120. But the Knicks then ran

Baseball Players to Talk Strike

NEW YORK (AP) — Major league baseball players will hold a special meeting in New York Monday, Feb. 3, to decide whether to carry out a threatened strike for higher pension benefits.

The players voted 461 to 6 last week to reject the club owners' offer to increase contributions to the pension fund by $1 million for a total of $5.1 million.

Marvin Miller, executive director of the Major League Baseball Players Association, announced Wednesday the situation had reached an impasse and that several players from each club will attend the Feb. 3 meeting to determine a course of action.

Many top stars, including Willie Mays, Mickey Mantle, Bob Gibson and Carl Yastrzemski, have endorsed the Association's policy of not signing 1969 contracts until a satisfactory benefit plan is worked out.

Spring training is scheduled to begin next month and indications are that unsigned players will not report unless a pension agreement is reached.

In a prepared statement, Miller charged the owners with mounting a national campaign to undermine the Players' Association. He said, "If ever there was an industry hell bent on its own destruction it is, unfortunately, that of the 'great national pastime.'"

Yerger High Wins Only One at Toltette

By RALPH MARTIN
Yerger Sports Writer

The Yerger High Tigers won one of three games in their rematch with the Lincoln Tigers of Toltette Tuesday night.

In the first game the Yerger Senior Girls fell to the Toltette Girls by a score of 67 to 16. The Tigerettes, who played by fouts, were only able to get 8 points on the board in the first half of the game, compared to 37 scored by Toltette. The final half was just as disastrous as the first. The Yerger Girls were only able to score 8 points. The final score: Yerger-16 Toltette 67. Leading scorer for Yerger was Evelyn Walker with 9 points.

In the Junior Boys game the Tiger Cubs defeated the Toltette Junior Boys by a score of 49 to 34. The Tiger Cubs jumped to a 20 to 15 point half-time lead. The Tiger Cubs aided by fouts made by Toltette managed to score 30 points in the second half of the game making the final score Yerger 49 Toltette 34. Leading scorers for Yerger were David Briggs 22 points and Kenneth Ellis 8 points. Leading rebounder was James Laudermilk with 13 rebounds.

The Yerger Senior boys fell to Toltette by a score of 55 to 8. The Tigers trailed by only 4 points at the end of the first quarter of play, as the score stood 33 to 29 in favor of Toltette. The Tigers made a comeback in the third quarter and led by a score of 48 to 47 at the end of the third quarter. The Tigers could only get 7 points on the board in the final quarter compared to 21 scored by Toltette making the final score 58 to 55. Lead scorers for Yerger were David Block 22 points and John Dudley 16 points.

The Tigers next game will be Thursday night, Jan. 23, in Okolona, so go and support the team, him," said Foster.

The next two knockdowns quickly followed, the second from a hook and right to the head and third from a right to the head.

"I wasn't hurt," said De Paula. "My feet went out from under me. A couple of punches stunned me but it was my feet — they just went out from under me."

"They shouldn't have the three knockdown rule for title fights. I wasn't hurt."

"I disagree," said Foster. "As the champion, I should be against the rule. But it's a good rule. That's when a guy gets hurt and you can't tell sometimes."

Foster's record now is 38-4, including 28 knockouts. He won the title by knocking out Dick Tiger in the fourth round at the Garden May 24.

Foster weighed 171½ pounds to De Paula's 173. De Paula now has a 18-7-3 record.

According to latest measurements, the earth is between two and five billion years old.

Oakland Oaks Ruined by Perfect Shot

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Oakland Oaks, who waited so long for Rick Barry to join them, did perfectly well without him until George Stane ruined them with a last second perfect shot.

Stone's 22-foot jumper brought the Los Angeles Stars a 123-121 victory over the Oaks at Los Angeles Wednesday night, ending their 16-game winning streak.

The Oaks, galloping off with the Western Division of the American Basketball Association, were 25-4 when Barry suffered a knee injury Dec. 27.

But without Barry, who had to sit out a year before joining Oakland, the Oaks compiled a 10-0 mark until Stone took a pass with three seconds left in the game.

Bill Sharman, pleaded for a time out, and dropped in the winner. He finished with 31 points. Denver thus cut Oakland's lead to 10 games with a 124-103 victory over the New York Nets at home.

In other games, Kentucky and Indiana remained deadlocked for second place in the East, 3½ games behind idle Minnesota, as the visiting Colonels nudged Dallas 104-102 and the Pacers routed Miami 140-117 at Indianapolis. New Orleans stopped Houston 121-117 at Houston in the other game.

In the National Basketball Association, Detroit edged the Los Angeles Lakers 118-115, Seattle surprised Baltimore 98-94, Atlanta bombed Phoenix 125-107, Chicago upset Boston 95-94 and Philadelphia outlasted the New York Knicks 141-137.

Larry Jones hit all but two of his season high 40 points.

Highly Touted Sophs Are Outgunned

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON

Associated Press Sports Writer

Glenn who won the Spencer

Haywood-Howard Porter battle?

Johnny Jones, that's who.

A sellout crowd turned out at the Philadelphia Palestra Wednesday night to watch two of the country's most highly touted sophomores—Haywood of Detroit and Porter of Villanova—go at each other.

But when the shooting died down it turned out to be Jones and zones that told the story as Villanova, ranked 11th in The Associated Press college basketball poll, ran away with a 93-71 victory.

Villanova led 46-45 with 15:43 left to play but the Wildcats suddenly went on a 25-5 tear over the next six minutes to wrap things up. Porter had 11 points during that stretch and Jones six.

Jones, a 6-foot-4 senior from Pompano Beach, Fla., finished with 37 points, a career high, 22 of them in the first half, as Villanova ran its record to 12-2. He also had 12 rebounds. Porter added 28 while Olympic hero Haywood, held to 12 points in the first 30 minutes, wound up with 25.

Villanova clamped one of Coach Jack Kraft's patented sagging zones around Haywood — "I'd like to think that our zone had something to do with stopping him," Kraft said—and the Titans were unable to penetrate it with much success.

The only other ranked team to see action was No. 9 La Salle, which turned back upset-minded Pennsylvania 78-64 in the second half of the Palestra twin bill.

The Explorers, 13-1, made 36 of 40 free throws to score a come-from-behind victory over the Ivy Leaguers, who had stunned Villanova last week with a slowdown game.

La Salle ran off 15 straight points in the second half to seal the triumph. Larry Cannon took scoring honors with 21 points, 18 in the second half.

There was only a smattering of major games elsewhere across the nation.

Sophomore Willie Bryant scored a key basket with four minutes left and stole a pass to set up another score second later as Penn State outlasted favored West Virginia 64-62.

Calvin Murphy of Niagara, the nation's second leading scorer, was held to 22 points, his season's low, but the Purple Eagles got by Buffalo 79-76. Murphy's three free throws, one thanks to a technical foul against Buffalo Coach Len Serfatini—put Niagara ahead to stay 69-68.

Gary Brown's free throw with six seconds left enabled Westminster of Pennsylvania to edge Pitt 65-64. Terry Driscoll's 28 points and 18 rebounds paced Boston College over Seton Hall 84-56 in the Eagles' first game since Coach Bob Cousy announced he would retire at season's end.

Bowling Green trailed Toledo until the final two minutes when Dan McLemore's rebound basket and two foul shots by Dick Rudgers gave the Falcons a 64-63 Mid-American Conference victory.

In another Mid-American clash, Western Michigan piled up an 11-point lead and then held off league-leading Miami of Ohio 71-66. Toke Coleman and Bobby Washington scored 21 points apiece as Eastern Kentucky downed Virginia Tech 73-65.

For second place in the East, 3½ games behind idle Minnesota, as the visiting Colonels nudged Dallas 104-102 and the Pacers routed Miami 140-117 at Indianapolis. New Orleans stopped Houston 121-117 at Houston in the other game.

McLain Named Male Athlete of the Year

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Denny

McLain, the flamboyant Detroit

pitcher who is equally at home standing on a mound or sitting at an organ, was named today

Male Athlete of the Year in the 38th annual Associated Press

poll.

Continuing recent domination by baseball players of the year-end award, McLain became the fourth in succession and the seventh in the last eight polls to find himself sitting on top of the sports world.

In those eight years only Don Schollander, the swimming star of America's 1964 Olympic team, has managed to break baseball's hold on the award.

But no Olympian from the 1968 U.S. team or such an outstanding college football player as O.J. Simpson, the Heisman Trophy winner from Southern California was able to overshadow McLain's exploits both on and off the field during the 1968 season.

For the 24-year-old right-hander conducted a delicate balancing act during the entire season, pitching baseballs with one hand and playing the organ with two. He received acclaim for the former, notoriety for the latter and money for both.

And, when the season had ended, McLain had posted 31 victories—becoming the first pitcher to reach the 30-victory plateau since Dizzy Dean in 1934—and was on his way to a Las Vegas opening dress in mink.

In the balloting by sports writers and broadcasters, McLain was rewarded with 108 first-place votes and amassed a total of 517 points on the basis of three points for first place, two for second and one for third.

Only three other athletes received more than 200 points—Simpson, pitcher Bob Gibson of the St. Louis Cardinals and quarterback Earl Morrall of the Baltimore Colts, the only pro football player able to crack the Top Ten.

Cong Medical Bumbblings Killed GI

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A U.S. Army autopsy blames medical bumbblings by the Viet Cong for the death of an American soldier nearly three weeks after the enemy freed him, it has been learned.

Spec. 4 James W. Brigham Jr., one of three American soldiers released by the Vietcong to an American military team on New Year's Day, died at the Army's Walter Reed General Hospital Jan. 17.

The Viet Cong radio has claimed that the 21-year-old Brigham, of Ocala, Fla., was "assassinated because the United States did not want him to tell the truth about the Vietnam war to the Negro population."

Brigham was reported to have been given head surgery for a battle wound during the three months he was held by the Viet Cong and the autopsy report indicated the operation was botched.

A summary of Brigham's case, made available by the Army, said the soldier entered the hospital Jan. 4, the day he landed here from Vietnam, and was found to be suffering from partial blindness "and a persistent draining wound from the head."

Army doctors operated on

Brigham Jan. 9 and attempted to stem infection, but he died last Friday.

"The post-mortem examination revealed the cause of death to be widespread infected brain tissue; second, to inefficient Debridement of the wound after initial injury while the patient was still in captivity," the Army said when asked for a report.

A spokesman said "Debridement" means removal of damaged and infected tissue.

Officers said the Army originally wanted to avoid accusing the Vietcong for Brigham's death for fear of reprisal against Americans still held captive.

However, they indicated that the Viet Cong effort to picture Brigham's death as a U.S. "assassination" changed their minds.

The Army report said examination of Brigham after his arrival here "revealed that visual impairment was due to a loss of part of the brain."

The returned GI was operated on after diagnostic studies probed the extent of damage, the Army said.

Doctors found hair deep in the wound and serious inflammation, requiring more efforts at removal of infected tissue.

Brigham responded slowly after the operation, the Army report said, and he suffered "convulsive seizures" four days before he lapsed into unconsciousness and died.

Army officials here said they do not know if military authorities in South Vietnam were aware of the extent of Brigham's wound when he was released Jan. 1 in a patty field near the Cambodian border.

Spec. 4 Thomas N. Jones of Lynnvillen Ind., and Pfc. Donald G. Smith of Akron, Pa., also were freed at that time.

City Sales Tax Bill Before Legislature

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A bill that would permit cities and towns to levy a one cent sales tax was introduced in the Arkansas House Wednesday by Rep. Andrew Schug of Paragould.

Rep. G. Leroy Blankenship of Walnut Ridge delayed the bill one day by objecting to the second reading of the measure.

Under Schug's bill, the governing body of any city of the first or second class or any incorporated town to pass an ordinance to levy the one cent sales tax.

The issue would then go to the voters in the city for approval or rejection. If the proposal were defeated, another election could not be held for a period of one year.

Other measures introduced in the House Wednesday included:

— A bill by Rep. Cal Lerdbetter Jr. to provide a continuance in any civil or criminal proceeding which involves any party or attorney who is delegate to the state Constitutional Convention.

— A bill by Thompson to make it unlawful for a person to drive ham's wound when he was released Jan. 1 in a patty field near the Cambodian border.

Spec. 4 Thomas N. Jones of Lynnvillen Ind., and Pfc. Donald G. Smith of Akron, Pa., also were freed at that time.

Electoral Amendment Proposed

By JOHN CHADWICK
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Pennsylvania's Hugh Scott, No. 2 Senate Republican proposed a constitutional amendment today doing away with the present presidential election system.

Scott's proposal, which would abolish the office of presidential elector and allocate electoral votes by congressional district, went into the hopper as a Senate judiciary subcommittee opened hearings into the whole situation of electing presidents.

Called as a leadoff witness by Subcommittee chairman Birch Bayh, D-Ind., were three senators, two of them advocates of direct popular election.

Tennessee's Howard H. Baker Jr. and Oklahoma's Henry Bellmon, both Republicans, are among more than 30 sponsors of a constitutional amendment that would abolish the electoral college and replace it with a direct election system.

The third witness, Republican Peter H. Dominick, of Colorado, supports elements of two rival plans, one providing for a division of electoral votes in proportion to the popular vote and the Scott proposal.

Scott told the Senate his proposal would improve the present system and "end this problem of the disenfranchised voter by doing away with the winner-take-all method."

"It will tend to strengthen the two-party system, the real bulwark of our government, by encouraging the minority party in currently one-party states," he added.

"More importantly, it will not enhance the chances of splinter parties because they have little hope of diverting more than a few electoral votes from one major party candidate," Scott said.

His proposal came less than three weeks after the Senate agreed to accept the vote of a North Carolina GOP elector who cast his ballot for third-party presidential candidate George C. Wallace of Alabama.

Under the present system, as outlined by the Constitution, voters in each state actually choose members of the Electoral College when they ballot for a presidential candidate.

Theoretically, each elector is a free agent and can vote for any person they choose, just as Bailey and a handful of others in this have done. Actually, the electors traditionally vote for the candidate who carried their respective states.

Under Scott's plan, a presidential ticket winning the plurality of a state's popular vote would win two electoral votes corresponding to the state's representation in the Senate.

The ticket also would win one additional electoral vote for each congressional district it carried by a plurality.

The presidential ticket receiving a majority of the total number of electoral votes would be elected, Scott said.

"If no presidential ticket obtained a majority, Congress in joint session would select a president from the top three tickets," he said.

Bayh is the chief sponsor of an amendment providing that the presidential ticket winning the most popular votes would be

Tech's Brown Increases Scoring Lead

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas Tech's Paul Brown, a 6-foot-1 junior, has increased his lead in the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference scoring race.

Brown led his closest pursuer by an average of less than one point per game last week. However, he has increased his average to 22.8 points while Bob McKeel of Harding is second with an average of 21.3.

Danny Davis of Henderson, who is averaging 21.1, and Hendrix's Dewayne Nash, with an average of 20.3, are the only other players averaging more than 20 points per game.

Nash leads rebounders with an average of 12.8 per game. George Fisher of Harding is second with a 12.4 average and is followed by teammate Jeff Stitt and Arkansas Tech's John Gross.

Opening lead—4 Q

We imagine quite a few North American pairs reached a spade slam with today's North-South cards in the Charity tourney. Some North players might open one spade and proceed to six after a raise from partner.

Played from the North seat the slam is not too bad a contract. The location of the king of hearts doesn't matter because South can probably get rid of his queen of hearts on dummy's fourth diamond but since East held the queen of diamonds there is no way to bring home 12 tricks and the slam bidders will wind up in the soup.

North should open two no-trump with his very good 21 points. Some South players will pass and let North play two no-trump for a bad score. Those who don't use Stayman or the Jacoby transfer will respond three spades and will play at game after a raise from North. A diamond lead will hold them to four odd because the defense will take the first three tricks but most will make an over-trick after the normal club opening lead.

Stayman bidders will reach four spades with North as declarer after a three-club Stayman bid by South and three spade response by North.

The Jacoby Transfer bidders will also arrive at four spades with North as declarer. South will respond three hearts to the opening two no-trump bid. This bid shows spades and a hand of any strength from nothing on up.

North's normal reply to the three-heart transfer is a three-spade bid but this particular hand calls for stronger action. North should jump right to four spades to show that his two no-trump opening includes very good spades. Give South a slightly better hand and he will move toward a slam but with this holding South will pass contentedly.

What do you do now?

A—Bid five hearts to show your two aces.

TODAY'S QUESTION
Your partner continues to five no-trump to ask for kings and you bid six hearts to show the two you hold. He bids six no-trump. What do you do?

Property Transactions Intricate to Report

Editor's note: It is time to think about the income tax again. This is Chapter Ten of a series reviewing the regulations, with emphasis on taking advantage of all exclusions and deductions legally due you.

By RAY DE CRANE
NEA Publications

Senior Citizens are not the only ones who get a tax break when they sell their home at a profit.

There are tax-saving opportunities as well for homeowners under 65 if they buy a more expensive replacement home following the sale of their residence.

If the replacement home costs as much or more than the adjusted sales price of the home sold, the tax on any gain is deferred. To take advantage of this, the replacement home must be purchased within one year before or after the sale of the former home. If you are building a replacement home, you must have started construction within one year of the sale and occupied it within 18 months.

First we will define the terms and then give an example to illustrate how the rules work.

The adjusted sales price is the gross selling price less the total of "fixing-up expenses" and "selling expenses."

Fixing-up expenses are defined as those costs undertaken to make the home more salable. They include painting, decorating and repairs, for example. They must have been done within 90 days before the sale and paid for within 30 days after the sale.

Selling expenses include a realtor's commission, escrow fees and legal fees in connection with the sale.

The following case history of a home sale will show the working of the various rules:

Original cost of home $24,000
Improvements 1,500
Total investment 25,500
Selling price 36,000
Less:
Selling expenses $2,800
Fixing-up 250
Adjusted sale price $3,050 3,050

Since the cost of the replacement home, $38,000, is more than the adjusted sales price of the former home, there is no immediate taxable gain. This does not mean the tax on the gain is forgiven; it is merely deferred.

There now comes a second step to the operation. You must now establish an adjusted cost basis for the new home. To do this, you reduce the cost price of the second home by the amount of the unrecognized gain.

To do that, refer back to the original sale and this time deduct only the selling expenses from the sales price. For this purpose, the fixing-up expenses are not considered. This is the result:

Realized on sale ($36,000 minus $2,800) $33,200
Investment in former home 25,500
Gain $7,700

Reducing the cost price ($38,000) of the replacement home by the $7,700 untaxed gain produces an adjusted basis of $30,300. Whenever the second home is sold for a higher net figure, there will be a profit.

There is no limit to the number of similar upgrading sales and purchases you may make while continually deferring the day of reckoning. If tax laws remain as they are, the ultimate tax advantage could be realized with the final sale occurring after age 65 is reached.

NEXT: Special tax benefits for the military.

The surtax makes it more important than ever for taxpayers to watch every deduction. Don't overpay. Send $1 with name and address for the 1969 "CUT YOUR OWN TAXES," the book that guides you line by line and offers a low-cost computer check. Mail order to "Cut Your Own Taxes," c/o (name newspaper), P.O. Box 489, Dept. (first three digits your Zip No.), Radio City Station, New York, N.Y. 10019.

Venereal Disease May Pass to Infant

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q—What are the symptoms of venereal disease? Can it be passed from a mother to her baby?

A—Gonorrhea starts with a severe burning pain on urination starting five or six days after an exposure. This is associated with a discharge of pus from the urethra. These symptoms are more likely to occur in men than in women. But, in women, the uterine tubes may become infected, causing pain and often sterility.

Syphilis starts with a small hard tumor or chancre on the genitals which develops from 10 to 90 days after exposure. Because it is painless it may go unnoticed, especially in women. About four weeks later there may be a skin rash that resembles measles.

A mother who has gonorrhea may, at the time of delivery, pass the infection to the baby's eyes. This was a common cause of blindness in the past and is why all states require prophylactic treatment of the eyes of every newborn. A mother with untreated syphilis may transmit the disease to her baby by way of the blood passing through the umbilical cord.

Q—What complications in men are caused by gonorrhea?

A—In addition to the inflammation of the urethra, gonorrhea may cause prostatitis, arthritis and, less frequently, inflammation of the kidneys.

Q—If a person who was exposed to venereal disease had two negative blood tests in the following five years, could he possibly have syphilis?

A—Although false negative tests do occur, they are rare with improved methods of testing. When there is reason to doubt the results of a blood test one of the new modifications of the test should be used.

Q—Are niter and saltpeter the same? How effective are they in reducing sexual desire?

Muskie Voices Opposition to Hickel

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Edmund S. Muskie of Maine says his opposition to Walter J. Hickel as interior secretary is to impress upon the Nixon administration "widespread concern on conservation policy that exists throughout the country."

Muskie, one of nine Democrats who said they would oppose confirmation when it comes to a vote today, also said he wants Nixon to be aware of the "deep concern on national fuels policy which exists in New England and Maine."

Despite the opposition, Hickel was expected to win handily before the Senate turns attention to another controversial Nixon appointment, that of David R. Packard to be deputy defense secretary.

Despite conflict of interest contentions by Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., and others, resulting from Packard's $300 million worth of stock in an electronics firm which does considerable Pentagon business, he has the unanimous backing of the Senate Armed Services Committee.

Those who have announced opposition to Hickel are Muskie, George S. McGovern of South Dakota, William Proxmire and Gaylord Nelson of Wisconsin, Alan Cranston of California, Thomas J. McIntyre of New Hampshire, Vance Hartke of Indiana, Frank E. Moss of Utah and Joseph D. Tydings of Maryland.

Others, including the Majority Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana and Democratic whip Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts, have not announced a position yet.

Debate on the nomination finally began Wednesday about five hours after the other 11 Cabinet members were sworn in at a White House ceremony.

Sens. Gordon Allott, R-Colo., and Ted Stevens, R-Alaska, defended Hickel as "consumer oriented" against attacks by Sens. John O. Pastore, D-R.I., Lee Metcalf, D-Mont., and Muskie.

Pastore, saying Hickel as sec-

Supt. Bassett of Prison Farm Quits

By PETE YOUNG
Associated Press Writer
TUCKER PRISON FARM, Ark. (AP) — Don Bassett said Wednesday night that it was "with reluctance but no animosity" that he resigned as superintendent of Tucker Prison Farm.

Robert Sarver, state correction chairman, had announced the resignation earlier in the day. He said he asked Bassett Tuesday to resign the $10,000 a year post.

"Surprised? Yes," Bassett said. "I would have to say that."

But Bassett said he could find no fault with Sarver's request or reasoning — Sarver said he wanted a more qualified head for the Tucker unit. "I felt that he has got a lot of guts," Sarver said of Bassett, "and has worked hard at it, but he is not equipped educationally or by experience for the job of superintendent."

"He understands the situation and accepts it," Sarver said. Bassett, who has a business degree, went to Cummins Prison Farm in February, 1967, as business manager. He held the post for 13 months until Prison Supt. Victor Urban appointed him associated prison superintendent and later superintendent in charge of Tucker.

Bassett said he understood the current situation and hoped to correct his posture in it to the point of eventually returning to the Arkansas penal system.

"I would like to stay in the prison field," the former Fort Smith gun dealer and store manager said. "I still like the administration part of prisons. That is why I asked last May to get out of the business department."

"Mr. Sarver told me he would help me get back into school and get a masters in corrections and further my education," he said. "Although I haven't formulated any definite plans, I'm sure that is what I will do."

Bassett was brought into the state's penal system by former Prison Supt. Thomas O. Murton. Bassett's former classmate at Oklahoma A&M. The two corresponded for several years after graduation and Bassett had told Murton several times he was interested in penal administration.

"I had been putting off trying the field when the (Murton) asked me to join him at Cummins," Bassett recalled.

The gun dealer uprooted his wife and their three school-age children two years ago and moved to Cummins, which was embroiled then in controversy over prison conditions.

The flamboyant Murton and most of his imported associates have been fired or asked to resign over the past year and given only "until sundown" or a few days to get off prison property.

"I'm probably the first man (of those hired by Murton) they (board) have ever allowed to stay around a few days," said Bassett, a rotund and straightforward official.

retary would have to consider the proposed Machiasport, Maine, oil refinery and free trade zone which Alaska has filed suit against, called the nominee "industry minded," rather than "consumer-minded." But Allott noted he had helped form a natural gas company which lowered fuel prices in Anchorage.

"The question is not whether he has reduced the price but what they are paying for natural gas," Metcalf replied. "They are paying an exorbitant, outrageous rate for that gas."

You Should Let
Legislators Know
Where You Stand

Tomorrow The Star will make the second and final printing of Rep. Talbot Feldt Jr.'s questionnaire on state tax proposals, and Sen. Olen Hendrix submitted a similar ballot to the people in yesterday's Star, which ballot is being reprinted in today's edition.

You owe it to your delegates in the legislature to take the time to mark these test ballots and deliver same for tabulation—sending the Feldt ballots to him in care of Hope Star, P.O. Box 648, Hope; and the Hendrix ballots to Sen. Olen Hendrix, Prescott, Ark. 71857. Please vote and mail or deliver your ballots immediately. Time's a-wasting.

Sen. Hendrix' publication was ordered run as paid advertising after we had already made a commitment to Rep. Feldt to publish two pages on his questionnaire free. However, we are waiving any charge against Sen. Hendrix — making both men's questionnaire publications a public service contribution by The Star.

We are refraining from any comment on the whole tax program until after the newspaper ballots have been delivered and counted—otherwise we could be accused of "steering" the vote. Immediately after the balloting, however, we shall discuss the legislative tax program. The public already knows we are hostile toward it, but we'll reserve the details for later.

I got a bang out of one personal letter I was permitted to read. A prominent Hope citizen had forwarded to a top Pulaski county politician one of my editorials attacking the proposed consolidation of Little Rock University of Arkansas. The politician's reply bore out my suspicion—that the UA-LRU merger proposal is the most sensitive area in the entire legislative picture.

About that we're going to have more to say.

Investment Rate Return Before PSC

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A utility rate expert testified Wednesday in a state Public Service Commission hearing that the Western Arkansas Telephone Co. of Russellville had a higher return on its investments than the company had indicated in its request for a rate increase.

James Honaker, a Kentucky utility consultant, said the rate of return for the company in 1968 was 5.38 per cent, rather than the 4.4 per cent as reported by the company. However, this is still below the 6 per cent, which is viewed as the normal return.

Honaker said his figure varied with that of the company on maintenance and depreciation costs. He called the company's figure excessive.

Honaker was scheduled for questioning today by the attorney for the company.

Ky Sees No Quick Results, Goes to Paris

SAIGON (AP) — Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky left for Paris today to supervise the Saigon government's delegation at the Vietnam peace talks. He said he was "very hopeful" that the conference would be successful eventually.

Ky said he had new instructions from President Nguyen Van Thieu but declined to reveal their nature.

"I am very hopeful, as usual," he told newsmen. Asked how soon he thought there would be some results from the conference, the vice president said, "I don't think we'll have quick results, but we'll try."

Democrats Plan Caucus

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The 34 Democrats in the Senate are scheduled to caucus after the chamber adjourns this afternoon. A planned caucus Wednesday was cancelled because some Democrats had to attend other meetings.

YOUNG AMERICA

Despite the current emphasis on youth in American society, young adults—the 18-24 age group—account for a relatively low percentage of the total population. Their numbers have been increasing more rapidly than the total population since World War II, but their percentage is moving up only slightly and between 1948 and 1958 dropped.

CROWDING INTO COLLEGE

In just 10 years, the number of young adults enrolled in college more than doubled and is expected to rise by almost the same number again by 1975. The percentage of all young adults in school has increased at a slower rate, however.

Only Survivor of 10 Trapped by California Flood Tells Sad Story

EDITOR'S NOTE: Six boys and four men are believed to have died when a bulldozer carrying them to safety stalled in a raging stream as flood waters rose quickly. This is the account by the only known survivor, a 28-year-old school teacher.

By JOHN SCOTT ECKERSLEY
As told to The Associated Press
OJAI, Calif. (AP) — We all knew it was more or less the end.

The boys were absolutely beautiful. No screaming. No hysteria. Only calm acceptance of the fact of what was to follow.

We all prayed, even the youngsters.

One by one, someone would call out he couldn't hang on any longer. The water in a cloud-burst rose so fast it stalled the bulldozer in the middle of the river. It was quickly up to our necks.

There was no time to talk about how to get to the bank. We all began to get numb and slip away.

The Navy petty officer was the first to go. He went quickly. "We talked about death and dying as the water kept rising. He said the Lord said it all planned. Maybe five minutes later he slipped off, and I held him another five minutes.

Then the kids went one by one and their leader.

Soon only two of us were left,

Insurance Firms Get Some Strange Claims and Here Are a Few

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — As every veteran bartender, doctor, lawyer, newspaperman and minister knows, sooner or later almost anything can happen to anybody.

Insurance claims adjusters, too, in time become familiar with the quirks of chance and the vagaries of human behavior. One of these, R. J. Bartum, claims vice president of State Farm Mutual and a man with a fine eye for the ridiculous and the unusual, collects as a hobby some of the odd cases his firm has been called upon to settle.

Here are a few:
A Midwestern client summoned police after he smashed into a telephone pole. They immediately arrested him for a a deputy sheriff and I. He was washed by a heavy swell on top of me. I held on to him but lost hold and we both went in. I went under several times and I don't remember much after that.

When I came to, I was lying in a pool. I crawled up the bank into some thick brush, dug a hole in the mud, squeezed inside and covered myself to keep warm.

In the morning I walked upstream about four miles and came across a stalled vehicle which had provisions and blankets in it.

I made myself comfortable for the rest of the day. Near darkness I saw a helicopter overhead. I flagged it down and it landed and hauled me in.

Denying the Charge, He Asked for a Drunkometer Test

When the drunkometer failed to work, the man said, "I'm an electronics engineer, I'll fix it."

He did, then took the test—and flunked.

After whooping it up in a Michigan tavern, a bunch of Indians on their way back to the reservation attacked a passing pickup truck with rocks and beer bottles. The driver veered into a telephone pole.

He collected, but the insurance company couldn't. It found, collect from the wayward braves. Their tribe had never

Tornadoes Kill 21 in Mississippi

HAZLEHURST, Miss. (AP) — Tornadoes ripped across central Mississippi early today, killing at least 21 persons and injuring more than 100.

The heaviest damage was reported at Hazlehurst, about 30 miles south of Jackson, where a twister cut a half-mile wide swath and left 10 persons dead and 15 to 20 homes demolished.

The Mississippi Highway Patrol said seven persons were killed by twisters in adjoining Simpson County between Mendall and Harrisville.

Police said a twister killed four persons in one house near White Oak, east of the Harrisville-Mendall area.

Nomination of Hickel Confirmed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate confirmed today the controversial nomination of Gov. Walter J. Hickel of Alaska to be Secretary of the Interior.

The action came three days after all of the other 11 members of President Nixon's Cabinet had been approved unanimously and more than 24 hours after they had taken office.

Hickel's views on conservation matters and his personal financial interests were probed for five days by the Senate Interior Committee. The appointment then was debated at length on the Senate floor.

The Senate now takes up another controversial Nixon nomination—that of California industrialist David R. Packard to be deputy secretary of defense.

School at Batesville Hit by Fire

BATESVILLE, Ark. (AP) — A former Batesville elementary school was destroyed by fire early this morning. No one was injured.

The facility was being used as a nurses' training school and also housed a dairy training program. Officers said supplies connected with both programs were destroyed in the fire.

Senate Vote Removes Tax Exemption

By ED SHEARER
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Senate passed a bill Wednesday to remove the income tax exemption on income a corporation receives from a domestic subsidiary in which the parent firm owns at least 95 per cent of the capital stock.

The House Revenue and Taxation Committee delayed by one week the public hearing it had scheduled on the administration's controversial measure that would legalize the sale of mixed drinks in wet counties if approved by local option election.

Members of both houses have said they prefer to whittle away some of the exemptions to state tax laws before they tackle Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller's $95 million tax package.

The Senate Revenue and Taxation Committee scheduled for 10 a.m. today a public hearing on use tax exemptions enjoyed by public transportation, communications and utilities.

The same committee in the House will begin next week a series of public hearings on exemptions from the sales and use tax.

The Revenue Department estimated that the income tax exemption measure passed by the Senate would produce about $200,000 annually.

Sen. Ben Allen of Little Rock argued that the bill would amount to triple taxation — taxation of the subsidiary's income, of the parent corporation's income, including that of the subsidiary, and of stockholder dividends.

Sen. Robert Harvey of Swifton said he did not know if Arkansas needed tax increases but that it needed additional revenues.

Harvey said he believed the state could obtain more money "without any big tax increases."

About 100 persons appeared before the House Revenue and Taxation Committee Wednesday for a public hearing on the mixed-drink proposal but Rep. James Dawson of Conway requested a delay so that more opponents would have ample time to appear.

The committee voted for the delay and Rep. Ray Smith of Hot Springs, the chairman, scheduled the hearing for 10 a.m. next Wednesday.

Judges Favor Voting by Machines

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Enactment of a law to make the use of voting machines mandatory in voting precincts in which 300 or more voters reside was urged Wednesday by the Arkansas Association of County Judges.

Judge Milton Willis of Crawford County, association president who sponsored the resolution calling for use of machines, said, "It is ridiculous when we have to wait a week to find out how some counties voted."

The judges pointed out in the resolution that the state has a number of precincts that have as many as 900 or more voters residing in them.

The resolution said the old method of counting votes — by hand — is becoming "burdensome, nearly impossible within a reasonable length of time, causing much confusion to all concerned."

Opposition to Merger

CONWAY, Ark. (AP) — The Conway Junior Chamber of Commerce issued a statement repeating their opposition to the merger of the University of Arkansas and Little Rock University this time "with an appeal to reason."

The statement said the proposed merger now before the legislature was "neither economically feasible nor educationally warranted." It said Arkansas should not take on new debts when it cannot adequately finance its existing program of higher education.

Navy Tells Commander of Pueblo He May Have to Stand Trial

By RICHARD MEYER
Associated Press Writer
CORONADO, Calif. (AP) — A Navy court told Cmdr. Lloyd M. Bucher Wednesday that he was suspected of violating naval regulations in surrendering the intelligence ship Pueblo to the North Koreans. He was informed by the five admirals constituting a court of inquiry that anything he said from now on might be used against him in court-martial proceedings.

But Bucher, obviously shaken by the statement, said he would continue to give "full details" of the Pueblo's capture and of the 11 months he and his 81 surviving crewmen spent in captivity.

Bucher resumes his testimony today—first anniversary of the seizure of the ship by the North Koreans.

Wednesday Bucher, 41, described how he gave up the Pueblo with her guns still covered. The court recessed briefly after he told of "receiving" aboard a party of North Korean riflemen about 20 miles off Wonsan Harbor and how they prodded his crew to sitting positions on the deck.

After their return, his face tensed as he heard counsel for the Navy, Capt. William Newsome declare: "Commander Bucher it is my duty to tell you that facts revealed in this court of inquiry render you to be suspect of a violation of USNR Article 0730."

A court of inquiry is not a military trial, like a court-martial, but only an investigative hearing. Nevertheless Bucher's hearing suddenly had changed from "a party to the court" to "suspect." Shortly after the crew's release just before Christmas at

Cold Wave Warning for Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A cold wave warning was issued for Arkansas for tonight on the heels of widespread thunderstorms that caused some damage in parts of the state Wednesday night and early today.

Jonesboro was struck by strong winds and torrential rains early today. The area along Parker Road, the route of a devastating tornado last May 15, received some damage, including the felling of utility poles.

Alarmed Jonesboro residents flooded police and fire departments with telephone calls. The U.S. Weather Bureau at Little Rock reported no radar sighting of a funnel in connection with the storm, however.

Snow was forecast along the northern tier of counties before precipitation ends during tonight.

Receivership Cancellation Before Court FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP)—A petition asking U.S. District Court to cancel a receivership order concerning three bankrupt Arkansas firms and to refer the matter to a referee in bankruptcy for liquidation purposes has been denied.

Attorneys for Arkansas Loan & Thrift Corp., United Loan and Investment Co., and Savings Guaranty Corp. filed the petition Dec. 27. Miller also noted that officials of AL&T, which purchased the charter of UL&I, and Savings Guaranty wanted to reorganize. He said liabilities of AL&T exceeded its assets by more than $3.1 million on March 13, 1968. He also said the liabilities of Savings Guaranty exceeded the assets by more than $2.4 million.

Miller said the receiver had filed 13 suits to foreclose mortgages and to obtain judgments against some, if not all, of the officials of the bankrupt firms. He said one suit seeks $770,800 on notes executed for the purchase of the capital stock of Savings Guaranty.
